

To the Members of the California State Senate:

I am returning Senate Bill 76 without my signature.

This bill would allow school districts to claim apportionment funding for students that are not supervised by a qualified, certificated teacher, in an in-school suspension setting. Current law requires students to be actually engaged in educational activities under the direct supervision of a certificated teacher, in order for school districts to be entitled to funding. At this time, I do not see a compelling reason to change this requirement.

Therefore, I cannot sign this measure.

Sincerely,

Arnold Schwarzenegger
